Franck Marzilli appointed Group Compliance Director of Coface

Franck Marzilli joins Coface as Group Compliance Director, effective in December 2016, with the objective of strengthening Coface's controllership functions in a context of increasing complex and stringent regulations. Franck holds a Master's degree in Management and Finance from the ESCP business school in Paris and has gained significant international experience in risk, compliance and control.

Prior to Coface, Franck was Head of Risk Control at Emirates Islamic Bank in Dubai and has worked for Société Générale, GE Capital and Deloitte & Touche in France and Eastern Europe. He was an auditor from 1993 till 2005, before focusing on risk management and compliance over the last ten years. In 2010, Franck moved to GE Money Bank in Latvia as a board member, in charge of compliance and controllership. He rejoined Deloitte & Touche in 2012 as partner in charge of the bank risk practice for Russia and CIS, based in Moscow. In 2014 and 2015, Franck held consulting roles for OTP Bank in Russia and Credit Lyonnais in France.
